Q4 Business Overview

Performance Rubber

- Sales Deviation: Price: +2%, Volume +10%, Currency -6% (approximate numbers)
- Sales rise on the basis of a simultaneous increase in prices and volumes in all BUs, more than offsetting adverse currency effects
- Capacity additions in BTR, SCP and PBR production line re-start in Orange, USA, matched with sound market demand
- BTR compares to weak volume in Q4 2006 due to a strike at a customer
- Mainly strong Asian demand supports volume growth and slight price increases in PBR
- Overall, margin almost stable on high level, despite negative currency effects
- Business outlook: Q1 started well, European and Asian rubber markets hold up strong against the U.S.

Advanced Intermediates

- Sales Deviation: Price: -3%, Volume +17%, Currency -4% (approximate numbers)
- Sales increased mainly on higher volumes in both business units, more than offsetting unfavourable currency effects

2008 Business environment and Outlook

Macro-economic environment and regional overview:

- Despite partially adverse market environment, we remain confident for the business development in 2008
- Q1 2008 started reasonably well
- Crude oil and derivatives are expected to remain on high and volatile level
- Further weakening of the U.S. economy expected in 2008, especially in the automotive and construction industry. Slowdown of growth in parts of Europe, however overall still on supportive level
- Asian markets, particularly China and India with continued momentum. In addition, positive development in eastern European markets as well as Latin America, specifically Brazil

Items to consider for 2008:

- No earnings contribution from LUP (2007: €20 m EBITDA pre exceptionals)
- Additional expenses for growth in MPP, ION: ~€8 m
- Closing of Petroflex acquisition expected in Q2 2008
- Related rise in net financial debt: ~€300 m (for 70% of Petroflex' equity)
- FY 2008 exceptional expenses: ~€70 m
- Currency sensitivity: Based on our annual net exposure, a change of 1 cent of the exchange rate of the U.S. Dollar to the Euro affects our EBITDA by €5-6 m
- However, the actual impact may be significantly lower due to our rolling hedging policy
